My thanks and hearty congratulations to the staff.

Relaxing after meal.

The Canterbury Club is an organization of the Episcopal Church which is open to members of all denominations. Meetings are held every Wednesday night at 6 in the Parish Hall of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. Members alternate in preparing a light meal which is followed by a program. After the program a short worship service is held.

The Canterbury Club aims to provide the college student with a break from daily routine and to give him a place where he can learn, a place where he can ponder and discuss new and contrasting ideas, and finally a place where he can strengthen his faith and realize the importance of his religion in his life, his school, and his world. It hopes for a strengthening through thought.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

One of the highest honors at Troy State College is being named to "Who's Who In American Colleges and Universities." This year the Who's Who Committee selected ten boys and ten girls for the position on the basis of activities, citizenship, leadership, scholarship, and promise of becoming future leaders of America.

A short biography of these students will be included in the national volume of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," an annual publication similar to, but entirely independent of, "Who's Who In America."

JOHN DUCE

RONNIE HAYES

Jahn Duce—Chattahaachee, Florida. Duce came to T.S.C. last season from Halmes Junior College. After a year's experience as a valuable substitute, the 6'4" cager earned a starting berth on the '62-'63 five, contributing to another fine Red Wave season.

Rannie Hayes—Mobile. Junior Hayes, 6'1", lettered as a sophomore last season, playing in every game for T.S.C. He ended the season as the best shot from the floor and cinching a starting position on the '62-'63 quint.

Hamil Martin—Decatur. The Bob Causy of Troy State has been a major factor in T.S.C.'s success for the past four years. This 5'10" senior guard is a passing and ball handling specialist that earned his fourth letter under Coach Archer this past season.

BASKETBALL

George Norton—Miami, Florida. Miami's contribution to T.S.C.'s Red Wave quint is probably the most devoted of all the cagers. Nartan, a 6'3" forward, rebounds and shaats with paise. He has led all Tray State rebounders for the past two years and is high among the all-time scorers. Senior Nartan made several all-tourney teams during his stay at T.S.C.

JUD DYE
Guard

GEORGE NORTON
Forward

Jud Dye—West Middlesex, Pennsylvania. Veteran cager Dye joins with Norton in being one of a few that has ever lettered far four years in raundball at Tray State. He was considered the tap defensive player in the conference by many. The little 5'9" guard rates high among the all-time scorers at T.S.C. and has been on the A.C.C. team twice and was listed on mast all-tourney squads.

THE MEDIUM

Madame Flora with the mute Toby.

Menotti's THE MEDIUM, presented by the T.S.C. Opera Workshop, with its eerie setting and gruesome conclusions, is actually a play of ideas. It describes the tragedy of a woman caught between two worlds, a world of reality which she cannot wholly comprehend, and a supernatural world in which she cannot believe. Baba had no scruples in cheating her clients, tricking them with fraudulent apparitions and contrived phenomena, until something happens which she herself had not prepared.

Monico comforts Toby from Madame Flora's outbursts.

THE SUITCASE PARADE - - - by G. R. Boyd

Friday's comel Beat the Drum!
Join the throng! Tag along.

Leaving Troy, girl and boy,
Going Homel Shout for Joy!

Weekend's not a time for study
I'm no old time fuddy duddy.

Cannot stay around this place;
Got to join the suitcase race.

This college town is full of wae;
There's not a single place to go,

And lest I stay and be dismayed,
I'll join the grand suitcase parade.

SUITCASE PARADE

Parties, dances, plays and games,
Dames with boys and boys with dames,

Competition, sport, and fun,
But when Friday comes I run.

Down the sidewalk, down the street,
Na grass grows beneath my feet.

As I swing my footsteps down
The road that leads to my hometown.

SUITCASE PARADE

Glee Club, Madrigals and Choir,
But I must warm by my home fire;

Student Center, lovely place,
But I must pack my old suitcase.

Tonight's the game, but just the same
I'm bored to tears, and all the cheers

Just swell the surge, increase the urge
Of the weekend suitcase splurge.

SUITCASE PARADE

Tennis games by the score,
Volley ball and golf golore,

Science club and drama too,
But I've got not a thing to do.

Churches have their Sunday Schools;
Tawn has shows and swimming pools,

SUITCASE PARADE

Swing along, sing a song;
Whoop it up, sound the gang!

But when I hear that last class bell
I grab my bag and run pell mell.

Na time to lase; can't be delayed;
I've joined the grand suitcase parade!

Do you remember - - -

when they come?

where your partner went?

why you turned away?

who called?

who you welcomed?

why he was hung?

remembering on

Why did they laugh when the machine caught your hand?

Do you remember when Mrs. Shelburne was Dean of Women?

Who was the two-thousandth student?

Who ruined your car?

Remembering can prove to be harmful as well as pleasant depending upon the persons involved, situations confronted, and problems solved.

LIFE

I get so tired of commuting.

Young and old enjoy the campus displays at Homecoming.

To eat or not to eat . . . that is the question.

Out at the Bookstore.

Blackie says, "Its a dog's life."

I'll do anything to pass that test!

"Rolling" a door plays a big role in campus life.

I'm going to wash that man right out of my hair!!

WHAT IS LIFE LIKE . . .

"You'll have to get someone a little taller, for I can't quite reach third."

I'll try to sleep it off.

IN A GIRL'S DORM?

You must be kidding! You aren't REALLY going to take my picture.

Those long, long nights of studying.

Oh, woe is me!

Now you will go into the Twilight Zone.

SCENES OF ACTIVITY

ending activities

An education at Troy State College means more than classroom instruction and the use of the library. It also means sharing experiences with your fellow students and participating in the cultural and recreational program provided by a college such as ours.

Part of your education should involve listening to concert artists as well as listening and talking to some of the renowned speakers who appear on the campus. Education should involve constructive bull sessions, cheering at the football games, and participating in the intramural sports.
